

TheHEALTHTrust

Let's make Silicon Valley the healthiest region in America

Board of Trustees

Judy Heyboer

Judy Heyboer has spent the last twenty -seven years in Human Resources, most recently as Senior Vice President at Genentech, Inc. in South San Francisco. During her tenure, Genentech achieved recognition by Fortune Magazine as one of America's "100 Best Places to Work." Prior to Genentech, Judy spent thirteen years at Acuson Corporation, which she joined in the startup phase to create the HR function and develop the culture and "feel" of the company. She began her human resources career at Spectra-Physics, Inc. She retired from Genentech at the end of 2000 in order to devote her time to writing, mentoring, advisory work, and making a difference in the community. She has been a member of "The Million Dollar Women's Club," a group of professional women committed to raising a million dollars for Home-safe, a unique program for families affected by domestic violence. This work led to her involvement with "Next Door Solutions to Domestic Violence," where she currently serves as Vice Chair of the Board of Directors. Judy currently chairs the Board of "Friends for Youth," an organization matching adult mentors with at-risk youth. She is a founding member and chair of the Advisory Board of the Global Women's Leadership Center at Santa Clara University, and is a member of the Leavey Business School Advisory Board at Santa Clara. She serves as a trustee of the Keck Graduate Institute in Claremont California. Judy has an MBA from the University of Santa Clara, and BA and MA degrees from the University of Michigan. She currently resides in Menlo Park with her family.