

HEALTHTrust

The Health Trust, The California Public Health Association-North (CPHA-N) and the EQUAL Health Network invite you to a special forum

The National Health Reform Law: Implications for Silicon Valley

Friday, September 10, 2010 * 9:00-11:00 am
The Mayer Theater, Santa Clara University

DOORS OPEN FOR REGISTRATION AND COFFEE AT 8:30 AM

Speakers will address topics including implications for our safety net, coverage, children's health, seniors, public health, and the health care workforce

Panel will be moderated by the Honorable Liz Kniss, Santa Clara County Supervisor and Chair, Health Steering Committee, National Association of Counties

- Welcome: The Honorable Mike Honda, United States House of Representatives
- Overview of the Affordable Care Act: Herb K. Schultz, Regional Director, U.S. Dept. of HHS Region IX; Ellen Shaffer, CPHA-N/EQUAL Health Network
- Implications for coverage expansion efforts: Sarah Muller, Director of Health Care Policy, Working Partnerships
- Implications for the safety net: Chris Wilder, Executive Director, VMC Foundation
- Implications for children: Kathleen King, Executive Director, Santa Clara Family Health Plan
- Implications for older adults: Sarah Steenhausen, Senior Policy Advisor, The SCAN Foundation
- Implications for public health and the health workforce: Dr. Marty Fenstersheib, Public Health Officer, Santa Clara County

Continuing Education

Continuing Education for Nurses by CPHA-N.

Provider approved by the CA Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 4952 for 2 Category 1 contact hours.
Units for Registered Dietitians are pending.

Continuing Education contact hours for CHES have been approved for 2 Category 1 contact hours.

SOPHE is a multiple event designated provider of Category 1 contact hours for CHES.

$10 per contact hour | | Fee payable on site

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to identify elements of the Affordable Care Act, understand its implications for populations including children and seniors, and discuss prospects for improving public health.

Forum registration is FREE.

Please confirm your attendance no later than Tuesday, September 7, 2010

RSVP to nicolek@healthtrust.org