About The Health Trust AIDS Services

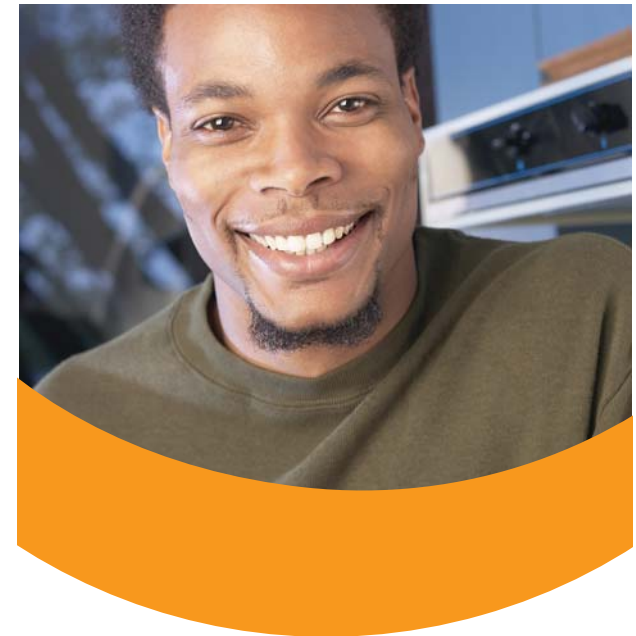

The Health Trust's vision is Silicon Valley as the healthiest region in America. As a charitable foundation, The Health Trust delivers essential services to Silicon Valley's underserved with commitment and care. The Health Trust is the largest provider of services to Santa Clara County residents with HIV/AIDS and empowers patients and families to solve their day to day needs.

The Health Trust AIDS Services provides case management to assist with managing medication; communicating with medical and social service providers; negotiating complex systems such as Social Security and health insurance; finding emotional support; mental health and substance abuse treatment referrals; and referrals to other services in the community. The Health Trust AIDS Services also provides hot meal delivery, food baskets, homecare, and rental subsidies and support services to help residents find and stay in affordable housing.

In addition to these services, The Neil A. Christie Living Center offers a safe and accessible place for people living with HIV/AIDS and others to meet and learn from each other as well as meet with service providers. Today, more than 800 HIV/AIDS patients rely on The Health Trust's services, and the number of people continues to grow.

HIV/AIDS Transitional Case Management A Community Collaboration

LINKS

About the Program

The LINKS Program assists people living with HIV/AIDS in Santa Clara County Adult Custody to make a smooth transition from jail to the community.

- A transitional case manager will meet with each client to determine their eligibility, assess their needs and assist with release planning.
- Upon release, the transitional case manager maintains contact with the client to monitor progress and provide assistance with referrals.
- Referrals can include medical care, medication coverage programs, Food Basket, transportation services, counseling and/or substance abuse treatment, housing and long-term case management as needed.

LINKS Program Eligibility

- Must be currently or recently incarcerated at Elmwood or Main Jail
- Must have verifiable, documented HIV diagnosis
- Must be capable/competent to participate in own plan of care and follow-up
- Must be a Santa Clara County resident
- Clients will need to have a picture ID upon release in order to obtain certain services in the community

LINKS will assist with housing information or referrals, but clients are not given or guaranteed placement upon release. If clients are already established with The Health Trust, they need only to call (408) 961-9850 to restart services.
